If you wish to share a special circumstance or an appeal condition that is not related to a family income change or a special expense, please legibly complete this form and submit it to our office. If you wish, you can type your appeal on a separate sheet signed by the student and parent (for dependent students) and submit it with this form. Please complete all of the boxes above. Please include anything you feel is pertinent to financing your DePaul education, including information about your academic accomplishments, your affinity for DePaul and your anticipated program of study. If there is a special family situation that you feel should be considered in your appeal for assistance, please include it. We will review your appeal as soon as possible. We will contact you via email once your circumstances have been reviewed.

If your appeal concerns a specific change in income, or a specific expense your family has incurred, please return to our Forms page, and complete the Special Circumstances: Income Changes and Special Expenses form. Thank you again for sharing your circumstances with us.

Please note: You can submit a typed appeal letter signed by the student and parent (for dependent students) with this form. Please be sure to complete all of the boxes above.
