This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their successors and permitted assigns provided, however, that neither this Agreement, nor any of the rights and obligations hereunder, may be assigned, transferred or delegated by either party, without the prior written consent of the other party; and provided further, however, that this Agreement may be assigned by either party without the consent of the other party hereto to any Affiliate of the assigning party.

17. TERMINATION

(a) If a party breaches any material covenant in this Agreement and fails to remedy same within forty-five (45) calendar days after receipt of written notice of such breach from the non-breaching party, or if the same is not reasonably capable of being cured within forty-five (45) calendar days, and the breaching party fails to commence to remedy same within forty-five (45) calendar days and diligently prosecute the remediing of the breach until the same is remedied, then the non-breaching party may, at its option, declare this Agreement terminated without prejudice to any additional remedy which may be available to the non-breaching party.
(b) In the event of the bankruptcy or insolvency of either party or if either party shall make any assignment for the benefit of creditors, take advantage of any act or law for relief of its debtors, or has a receiver, custodian, or trustee appointed for all or a material portion of its assets and/or has its stock de-listed from the securities exchange on which it is currently listed, the other party to this Agreement shall have the right to terminate this Agreement without further obligation or liability on its part.

(c) In accordance with the DoE Regulations, and subject to the procedures set forth in subsections (i)-(iii) below, the University may terminate this Agreement if it determines (either, a “DoE Cause for Termination”): (1) after conducting a biannual reasonable due diligence review (“Review”) of the fees imposed under the Program that such fees are not consistent with or are above prevailing market rates; or (2) based on complaints received from Students that the Accounts offered are inconsistent with the best financial interests of the Students opening them.

Prior to terminating this Agreement under this Section, the University shall enter into a forty-five (45) day discussion period with Wintrust Bank (the "Discussion Period"). During said Discussion Period, the University and Wintrust Bank shall review the findings of the DoE Cause for Termination, to determine if they are accurate, inaccurate, non-conclusive, or if corrective action is necessary by Wintrust Bank for those items deemed unsatisfactory by the Review or at issue in Customer Complaints.

(i) If the parties mutually agree the findings are inaccurate or non-conclusive, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

(ii) If the parties determine corrective action is required, they will negotiate in good faith to establish a commercially reasonable plan to address those items considered unsatisfactory in the Review or at issue in Customer Complaints (the "Plan"). Wintrust Bank shall begin implementation of the Plan within twenty-five (25) days from the end of the Discussion Period. Thereafter, if the University deems in good faith that Wintrust Bank has not successfully implemented a Plan, then the University may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice to Wintrust Bank.

(iii) If the University determines in good faith that the findings are accurate and cannot be remedied by a Plan, or if the parties cannot agree to a Plan, then the University may terminate this Agreement upon ninety (90) days written notice to Wintrust Bank. The University shall provide such notice no later than fifteen (15) days after the expiration of the Discussion Period. This shall not be deemed a condition of default by Wintrust Bank under this Agreement.

18. ACCOUNT INFORMATION FOR REPORTING AND DISCLOSURE

(a) The DoE Regulation requires the University to provide or disclose certain information to Students and/or the public regarding the Accounts and its use by University Students ("DoE Compliance Information"). Wintrust Bank agrees to provide the University upon its request with the following DoE Compliance Information for this purpose, and to update the information on an annual basis:

(i) The major features and commonly assessed fees associated with the Account and a URL for the terms and conditions of the Account;

(ii) The total monetary and non-monetary consideration paid or received by the parties under this Agreement for the most recently completed Agreement year, to be publicly disclosed on the University's website, which the parties agree and acknowledge is zero;

(iii) The number of University Students with an Account during the most recently completed year of the Agreement, and the mean and median account costs incurred by those Students, to be publicly disclosed on the University's website; and

(iv) Identification of any portions of this Agreement that Wintrust Bank believes would, if disclosed, compromise personal privacy, proprietary information technology, or the security of information technology or of physical facilities, so that the University may redact such information from this Agreement before publishing it on the University's website, as required by the DoE Regulation.

(b) The parties will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure the DoE Compliance Information satisfies the requirements regarding the format and content established by the Department of Education Secretary.

(c) Wintrust Bank reserves the right to revise the DoE Compliance Information it provides to the University as deemed necessary to ensure its accuracy.

(d) The parties agree that any disclosure of DoE Compliance Information required by the DoE Regulation does not violate the parties' confidentiality obligations under Section 19 of this Agreement. This includes the publication of this Agreement itself on the University's website, minus redactions made pursuant to Section 18(a)(iv) of this Agreement.

19. CONFIDENTIALITY

(a) Wintrust Bank and University both agree that all proprietary and/or confidential information, whether oral or written or via computer disk or electronic media, to which the other is given access or is made available to the other, including to each party’s directors, officers, employees, Affiliates, agents or representatives, is referred to hereinafter as “Confidential Information.” Confidential Information shall include, without limitation, all technology, know-how, processes, software, databases, trade secrets, contracts, proprietary information, all historical and financial information, business strategies, operating data and organizational and cost structures, product descriptions, pricing information, customer or Constituent or Alumni information, which includes, without limitation, names, addresses, telephone numbers, account numbers, demographic, financial and transactional information or customer or Constituent lists, whether received before or after the date hereof.
Confidential Information also includes information of any parent, subsidiary or Affiliate of Wintrust Bank or University. Each party agrees to hold such Confidential Information in strictest confidence, not to make use thereof except in connection with the performance of this Agreement, and not to release or disclose any Confidential Information to any other party with the exception of parent companies, subsidiaries and affiliated companies, consultants, auditors, attorneys and other professionals who need to know the Confidential Information in order to perform their services; regulators; and prospective assignees, transferees or other successor to the rights of the parties, provided that in all such cases the third parties receiving the Confidential Information shall agree to hold such Confidential Information in strictest confidence consistent with this Section 19. In the event of a breach of the foregoing, the non-breaching party shall be entitled to specific performance, including the right to seek preliminary and permanent injunctive relief against the breaching party, as its sole and exclusive remedy.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may disclose Confidential Information pursuant to a requirement or request of a governmental agency or pursuant to a court or an administrative subpoena, order or other such legal or administrative process or requirement of law, or in defense of any claims or causes of action asserted by the disclosing party; provided, however, that prior to disclosing the Confidential Information, the disclosing party shall (i) first notify the other party of such request or requirement, or use in defense of a claim, unless such notice is prohibited by statute, rule or court order, (ii) attempt to obtain the consent of the non-disclosing party to the disclosure of the Confidential Information, and (iii) in the event consent to disclosure is not given by the nondisclosing party, the disclosing party agrees that the non-disclosing party shall have the right to pursue a motion to quash or other similar procedural step in order to try to prevent the production or publication of the specific Confidential Information. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, nothing herein is intended to require, nor shall it be deemed or construed to require, either party to fail to comply, on a timely basis, with a subpoena, court or administrative order or other process, or requirement.

(c) It is understood and agreed that the obligation to protect Confidential Information shall be satisfied if the parties utilize the same control (but no more than commercially reasonable controls) as it employs to avoid disclosure of its own confidential and valuable information and the parties shall have appropriate policies and procedures in effect to (i) ensure the security and confidentiality of the Confidential Information, (ii) protect against any anticipated threats or hazards to the security or integrity of such Confidential Information, and (iii) protect against unauthorized access to or use of such Confidential Information that could result in harm or inconvenience to the parties or their customers or Constituents or Alumni.

25. GOVERNING LAW/JURISDICTION

The laws of the State of Illinois govern all matters arising out of or relating to this Agreement without regard to its provisions relating to the conflict of laws, and all transactions it contemplates, including its interpretation, construction, performance, and enforcement. Any party bringing a legal action or proceeding against any other party arising out of or relating to this Agreement shall bring the legal action or proceeding in a state or federal court in the County of Cook, State of Illinois. The parties consent to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts, and each party waives any objections it may now or later have to the venue or convenience of such forum.
