Verification FAQ

Why was I selected for verification?

Verification is a review process required by federal student aid regulations. It simply means the information on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) needs to be confirmed with supporting documents. If changes to your FAFSA are required due to verification, your eligibility for need-based awards may change. Our office will send you an electronic award notification if there are any changes to your eligibility.

How do I complete this process?

What happens if I do not complete verification?

- Your eligibility for need-based federal, state, and university grant aid can only be determined after completing the verification process. As a result, you will not receive an award package until this is done. If you are a new student, you will receive an estimated award package, but financial aid will not be disbursed until verification is complete.
- If you do not submit the required documentation by the deadline, your financial aid may be cancelled.
- If you have a balance due Student Accounts will place a hold on your registration.

What are the important deadlines?

Financial aid is time sensitive, and we recommend that you submit your documents within 14 days of receiving the request. Since some programs have specific processing requirements, your funding may be reduced or canceled if you delay the submission of your documents, as explained below:

- If you are eligible for the Illinois Monetary Award Program (MAP), you need to complete verification as soon as you are notified, but no later than two weeks before the quarterly payment claim date established by the State of Illinois. Funding is limited and time sensitive. You may not receive funding if you complete verification after the dates below:
 - Fall Quarter: October 1st
 - Winter Quarter: February 1st
 - Spring Quarter: April 15th
- If you plan to borrow federal student loans, you must complete verification no later than November 1st for academic year loans and no later than the 6th week of the quarter for partial-year loans to allow sufficient processing time.
- If you are eligible for the Federal Pell Grant, you must complete verification within 120 days of your last date of attendance for the academic year or no later than the verification deadline established by the Department of Education (check with the Office of Financial Aid for this date), whichever is earlier.
- If you receive institutional need-based funds, you must submit verification documents by October 1st for full year awards, and by the 6th week of the quarter for partial-year awards.
- Any exceptions made to the above deadlines will be on an appeal basis, dependent on the availability of funds, and in all cases based upon federal, state, and university regulations.
