The purposes of the programs in French, German, Italian, and Spanish are to develop the student's ability to speak, understand, read, and write the languages and to stimulate an appreciation of their major authors and the civilizations of the countries. The 100-level courses aim to provide the student with a working knowledge of a foreign language.

The department areas of concentration are two: a standard program in French, German, Italian, or Spanish, which provides a student with a strong liberal arts background, and a modern language education program, offered in cooperation with the School of Education, which qualifies the student to teach language at the junior high or secondary level.

The department offers majors in French, German, Italian, and Spanish, which consist of classwork beginning at the 200- and 300-levels. This does not include the basic and intermediate (101-106) sequences which must be taken if the student's prior linguistic training is inadequate to start with advanced courses. Lower division courses, however, do not count towards the major.

The department offers a general minor (20 hours/5 courses) in French, German, Italian, Japanese or Spanish, and a commercial language minor (20 hours/5 courses) in French and Spanish. Students wishing to apply their language skills in business should select the commercial language minor.

The department also offers varying levels of instruction in Arabic, Chinese, Classical and Modern Greek, Latin, Polish and Russian. Students are encouraged to participate in DePaul's Foreign Study Programs in China, France, Germany, Greece, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Spain, Poland and other locations. Consult the Foreign Study Office for current offerings.

In addition, the department offers a major and a minor in Japanese Studies and a minor in Chinese Studies; these programs have different requirements than the other programs listed above. They combine study of the language with supporting course work taught in English in a variety of different disciplines.

Placement Guide

Language majors, students using language as a supporting field, and those students who are intending to study only the more elementary courses should begin their studies in accordance with the following guide:

Two years of high school language: begin with 104.

Two to three years of high school language: begin with 105 or 106 (or 109 for native speakers) on approval of Language Department chair.

Four years of high school language or a more extensive background: begin with 106 (or 109 for native speakers), 200- or 300-level courses chosen in consultation with departmental chair.

Placement tests or consultation with the chair can result in an adjustment of this guide (either forward or backward) to reflect the individual competencies of the student.

Bachelor of Arts

Liberal Studies Program

In addition to the 32 quarter hours required in the liberal studies core, students are required to complete 52 quarter hours distributed through six learning domains as part of their Bachelor of Arts degree in a modern language. The number and distribution of courses in each of the areas are as follows:

Core: 32 quarter hours required

First Year Program: (20 quarter hours required) Discover Chicago or Explore Chicago, Focal Point Seminar, Quantitative Reasoning, and Composition and Rhetoric I and II.

Sophomore Seminar: (4 quarter hours required) Sophomore Seminar on Multiculturalism in the United States

Junior Year Experiential Learning: (4 quarter hours required) If your junior year experiential learning requirement also fulfills a major field requirement, you may substitute a liberal studies domain elective (from outside your major field area) or the third course in the modern language option for this requirement.

Senior Capstone: (4 quarter hours required) German and Italian require that all students majoring in the language complete the senior capstone in the language. If you are double majoring and/or in the Honors program you must also follow the capstone guidelines for that area. French, Japanese Studies and Spanish require students majoring in those languages to complete the senior capstone in the language, unless you are a double major and/or in the Honors program. If you are a double major and/or in the Honors Program you must follow the capstone guidelines for that area if the capstone is required. If the capstone is optional in the other areas, you can elect which capstone to complete.
Arts and Literature: 4 quarter hours required.
Philosophical Inquiry: 8 quarter hours required.
Religious Dimensions: 8 quarter hours required; 4 quarter hours in patterns and problems, and 4 quarter hours in traditions in context.
Scientific Inquiry: 12 quarter hours required; 4 quarter hours with a lab component, 4 quarter hours with a quantitative component, and 4 quarter hours scientific inquiry elective.
Self, Society and the Modern World: 12 quarter hours required. At most 2 courses from the same department or program.
Understanding the Past: 8 quarter hours required; 4 quarter hours of history pre-1800 and 4 quarter hours of history primarily between 1800-1945. In addition, courses must be from two different categories: 1) Asia, 2) Latin America, 3) Africa, 4) North America or Europe and 5) intercontinental or comparative.

Although study in a modern language contributes to a student's liberal education, courses offered by the department of modern languages are not applied towards liberal studies requirements for a modern language major. Exceptions to this rule are the junior experiential learning and the senior capstone requirements. In addition, the modern language option does not apply to students majoring in a modern language.

DEPARTMENTAL PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS
I. STANDARD CONCENTRATION
All students are required to enroll in one of the following sequences.
French: 201 Advanced Communication I; 202 Advanced Communication II; 203 or 204 Advanced Communication III or IV; 341 Introduction to French Literature I; 342 Introduction to French Literature II; 350 French Phonetics and Phonology; one 20th century literature course and five more 300-level courses. French majors must also take the MOL 396 capstone course in Modern Languages (except if they are in the Honors program or if they take another capstone course from another program in which they are also majoring).
German: 201 Advanced Communication I; 202 Advanced Communication II; 203 Advanced Communication III; MOL 396 capstone in modern languages; and eight 300-level courses.
Italian: 201 Advanced Communication I; 202 Advanced Communication II; 203 Advanced Communication III; MOL 396 capstone in modern languages; and eight 300-level courses.
Spanish: 201 Advanced Grammar and Communication; 202 Advanced Composition and Communication; 203 or 204 Advanced Conversation; 352 Spanish Phonetics and Phonology; 220 Introduction to Literary Analysis in Spanish; plus three more literature courses, one from three of the following areas: 1) Spanish Literature from Middle Ages through Golden Age, 2) Spanish Literature from Enlightenment to present, 3) Latin American Literature from origins through Romanticism, 4) Latin American Literature from Modernism to present; and finally, four 300-level courses. Spanish majors are also required to take the Modern Languages capstone (396 Language, Literature and Culture), except if they are in the Honors program or if they take another capstone course from a program in which they are also majoring.

Contemporary Criticism (MOL 355) may be taken as a free elective for majors in French, German, Italian, and Spanish (however, education majors are required to take MOL 357 instead).

205 Grammar/Composition for the Hispanic I, 206 Grammar/Composition for the Hispanic II and 207 Advanced Conversation for the Hispanic are strongly recommended to students of Hispanic background. These courses may be substituted for Spanish 201, 202, 203-204.

II. TEACHER OF MODERN LANGUAGES: SECONDARY LEVEL
In cooperation with the School of Education, the Department of Modern Languages offers a concentration of study which combines the requirements for a major in Modern Languages with certification for teaching modern languages at the junior high, middle, and senior high school levels. A student electing such a program should consult the School of Education Counselor as soon as possible after entering DePaul.

Modern Languages: The student must complete the same program as departmental majors, with the following exception: MOL 357 is also required.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

MINOR IN FRENCH, GERMAN, ITALIAN, JAPANESE, OR SPANISH

An individualized program can be developed for a minor after consultation with the chair or a counselor from the Modern Languages faculty. The minor will consist of a total of 5 courses in the language chosen. Courses will be taken beginning at the 200/300-level. For the standard minor, a student may choose a mix of 200- and 300-level courses. However, no more than three 200-level courses will count towards the standard minor, which must be completed by at least two 300-level courses. On the other hand, a student may elect to take as many as five 300-level courses towards the standard minor.

MOL 355 and MOL 396 do not count as part of a foreign language minor.

THE COMMERCIAL LANGUAGE PROGRAM IN FRENCH OR SPANISH

Only 200- and 300-level courses may be applied to the completion of the commercial minor. Students starting their language studies at a less-advanced level of language should consider the following sequence: Stage One (French 101, 102, 103 or Spanish 101, 102, 103) for the beginning language student; Stage Two (French 104, 105, 106 or Spanish 104, 105, 106) for the intermediate language student. The minor itself will consist of French/Spanish 320 Advanced Commercial French/Spanish plus any configuration of French/Spanish 200- and 300-level courses of the student’s choosing. The department, however, recommends that those seeking a commercial language minor take the following courses: French 201, 202, 203 or 204 and 321 or one civilization course; Spanish 201, 202, 203 or 204, and 325. Hispanic students are encouraged to substitute Spanish 205, 206 and 207 for Spanish 201, 202, 203 or 204.

Students successfully completing the commercial language minor will be encouraged to take the business language certification exams given by the French and Spanish governments through their respective chambers of commerce.

THE CHINESE STUDIES MINOR

The Chinese Studies minor consists of one year of college-level Chinese language (101-102-103 or equivalent) and five additional courses focusing on China chosen from at least two different disciplines in consultation with an advisor from the approved Chinese Studies minor course list (available in the Department of Modern Languages). Currently there are offerings in Art, Communications, Geography, History, International Studies, Political Science, Religious Studies, etc.

THE JAPANESE STUDIES MAJOR AND MINOR

A major in Japanese Studies will require the completion of twelve Japanese-related courses. The core will be formed by six to eight courses that will be taken at the 200-and 300-level in the areas of language, linguistics, culture, or literature through the Department of Modern Languages. Japanese 201, 202, and 203 (or equivalent) are required, as well as at least two of the following 300-level classes: 311, 312, 313. Japanese Studies majors are urged to take all six of these classes in order to increase their language proficiency. Japanese 330 is a strongly suggested elective for all Japanese Studies majors. Four to six classes focusing on Japan will be taken in at least two other departments or programs such as Art, History, Religious Studies, Geography, International Studies, Political Science, etc. Consult the current approved Japanese Studies course list available in the Department of Modern Languages.

Japanese Studies majors must also take the MOL 396 capstone course in Modern Languages (except if they are in the Honors program or if they take another capstone course from another program in which they are also majoring).

Students who declare this major will be assigned an advisor to help plan a detailed individualized study program.

The minor in Japanese Studies consists of one year of college-level Japanese language study (101-102-103 or equivalent) and five additional courses chosen from at least two different disciplines in consultation with an advisor from the above-mentioned approved course list. The Japanese Studies minor is distinct from and should not be confused with the Japanese Language minor listed above.

SEQUENCING

Students should begin at their appropriate level (elementary, intermediate, or advanced) determined in consultation with an advisor. Completion of 106/109 is a prerequisite to all 200- and 300-level courses, except those offered in the Liberal Studies program.

Thereafter, the choice of 200- and 300-level courses should be made according to the following criteria: a) availability of offerings, b) the particular needs of the student, i.e., language reinforcement or literary skills, c) the requirements of the specific language program.

COURSES

All courses carry 4 quarter hours credit. Courses marked with an asterisk may be repeated for credit when topics vary; check current schedule of classes for specific topics. Many Modern Language courses are eligible for Liberal Studies credit. Interested students should contact their advisors or their college office.

The first six courses in all languages are structured to be taken sequentially. Students who have not successfully completed the previous course in the beginning (101-102-103) and intermediate (104-105-106/109) sequences (or equivalent) may not register for more advanced courses in that sequence. After taking 106 (or 109), students may register for any advanced course at the 200- or 300-level.

All Independent Study courses require prior approval by the course instructor and the chair.
